Yeshu invites its readers in to join a storytelling carpenter, his young neighbors Daavi and Shoshana, and a band of fellow seekers on a journey that forever alters their lives, and still impacts ours. The tale they share was written from a Quaker perspective for readers of all ages and spiritual backgrounds. Charles David Kleymeyer, PhD, is an author, culture and development sociologist, and performing storyteller. For five decades he has worked and often lived with ethnic peoples of the Americas, joining their struggles to improve their lives, revitalize their cultures, and restore the earth. Most of that time, he was also imagining Yeshu.
